

Don't throw out those pill bottles... We are collecting empty over-the-counter and prescription medication bottles for our international missions.

Please remove the labels, clean and dry the bottles and set them aside for the Foundation. When you are ready to donate the bottles, contact the Foundation for collection.