

Don't know what to do with those hotel toiletries or travel-sized product samples? We are collecting travel-sized toiletries for our international missions.

All toiletry items are appreciated but small bars of soap are vital. During the international missions, community health issues are addressed. When you are ready to donate these items, contact the Foundation for donation instructions.

